

Student Leaders Programme

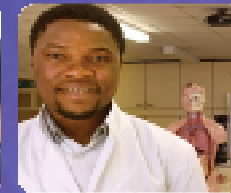

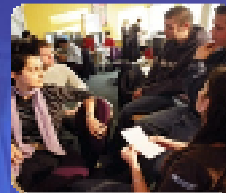

Introductions

- Ben Rogers
 - GCU Student Experience and Community Advisor (2006-2008)
 - GCU Quality Officer (2008 - present)
- Nicky St. Clair
 - GCUSA Student Leaders Co-ordinator (2008 – present)

SLP

Facts and Figures

- 16,000 on campus in Glasgow
- A national leader in widening participation
- 92% of graduates in employment or further training within six months
- Growth in new students every year
- 80,000 graduates since 1875

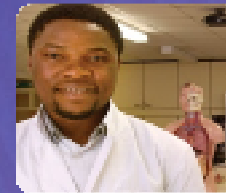

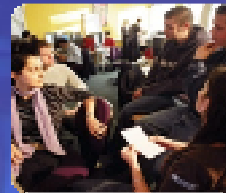

Setting the Scene

- 16,000 Students
- 10,800 full-time UGs
- 2800 part-time UGs
- 1000 full-time Taught PGs
- 1000 part-time Taught PGs
- 300 Research PGs
- 7 Schools
- 60 % Female Students
- 40 % Male Students
- 90 % Home Students
- 10 % International Students
- 20 % Mature Students

SLP

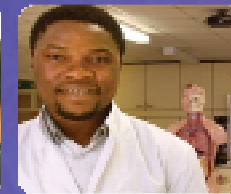

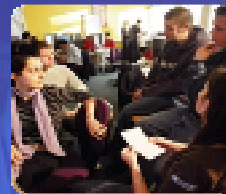

Setting the Scene

- Student Engagement in GCU and GCUSA
- Student volunteers
- Different Volunteer groups
- Different ways to get involved

SLP

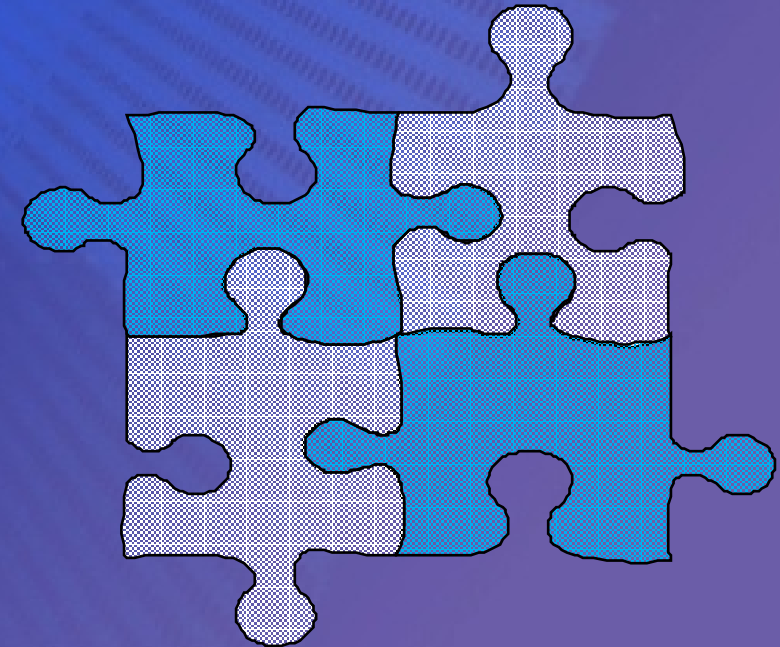

Setting the Scene

Putting the pieces
together:

500
CLASS REPS

SLP

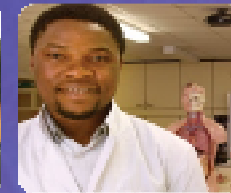

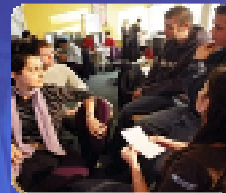

Why?

- Why did we start the Student Leaders Programme
- How has it benefited students at GCU

SLP

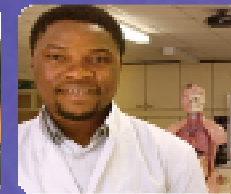

What is the Student Leaders Programme

- Aims to encourage, support and recognise students who already or wish to engage in leadership activities
- Acknowledge students for their volunteering/mentoring role
- Flagship programme which educates and empowers students

SLP

How does it work?

Volunteering roles

- Class Reps
- Sports/society committee member
- Nightline Volunteer
- Editorial Team of student mag, Re:Union
- Welfare Volunteer
- RAG Volunteer

Mentoring roles

- Student Mentor
- Psychology Work and Mentoring Scheme
- On Track Mentor
- Caledonian Club

SLP
LEADERS
PROGRAM

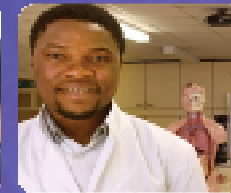

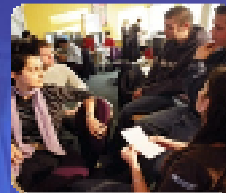

How does it work?

- Numbers have increased each year, 300 students registered this academic year
- Programme has evolved from one level to three different levels Bronze, Silver, Gold
- 319 students have completed the Programme since it began

SLP
LEADERS
PROGRAMME

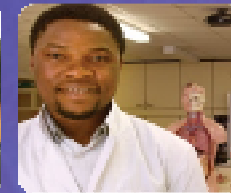

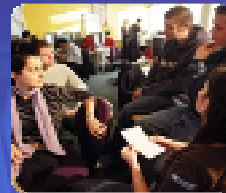

Structure

- Attending leadership and personal development seminars
- Complete development log and reflection
- Commitment to a voluntary/mentoring for at least 3 months

SLP

LEADERSHIP

End Product

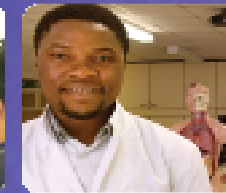

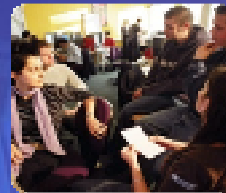

- Presented with a certificate in recognition of their achievement

Caledonian Student of the Year Award

- Demonstrates key attributes from their leadership role
- Winner at Bronze, Silver and Gold
- Overall winner receives Award at Graduation

SLP

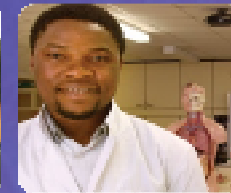

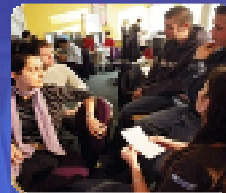

Conclusion

- The Student Leaders Programme:
- Rewards students volunteers and mentors
- Develops skills which will mould students in to business leaders
- Can excel in the future with formal accreditation and building relationships with organisations

SLP

Questions.....

Thank you

SLP

