sparqs

sparqs and Developing Student Expertise

sparqs' aim is to improve student engagement in quality enhancement

Central to our work is the understanding that students are experts in their own learning

These two ideas are at the core of our work with students and institutions across Scotland and internationally

That's Quality

- Trains Student Officers in Quality Processes
- Includes internal and external processes
- Aims to provide them with useable knowledge for their own institutions

AT Scheme

- Owned and operated centrally by sparqs
- Trained 4,200 course reps in colleges and universities
- Course rep training is widely used, even in places where the AT or IAT schemes are not
